Ms. Rritu Rana

RrituRana is an Entrepreneur, Personal Branding and Image Consultant , Personality Development Coach, NLP Practitioner and a Soft Skills Trainer.

She has nearly two decades of hands-on experience of human resource and personality development. She has gravitated to the belief that there is a critical need to bridge the gap that exists amongst the working professionals in urban agglomerations, across geographies. This view was born out of exposure to social manners, etiquette, personal grooming, two generations with the Armed Forces fraternity and extensive travel experiences abroad. Hence the birth of ‘Shakhhsiyat’- the Personality and Image Consultancy.

Rritu has a Master's degree from Delhi School of Economics, an MBA from Bangalore University (dual specialization in Human Resource and Marketing). She attended the Image Consulting and Business Institute for certification in Soft Skills, Train the Trainer and Image Consulting courses (accredited by SQA- Scotland, NABET and Conselle L.C- U.S.A respectively).

Rritu has also focused her passion for supporting organizations and projects that she cares about – whether giving some time to the initiatives at Speakers Tribe International; contributing towards women's empowerment initiatives at AWWA; to being part of projects at IMPA in helping people realize their potential.

She lives in Mumbai and loves connecting and collaborating with people globally, towards mental health, women empowerment and environmental awareness initiatives.
