

NAME- AAKRITI SRIVASTAVA (President)

I am Aakriti Srivastava. I Am an Accurate and immensely motivated 2nd year BA(Hons) Sociology student at Kamala Nehru College, DU. I Am from Patna but currently I reside in New Delhi. I wish to lead the sexual harassment council from state sector Bihar. I seek a challenging assignment in an organization that will utilize my knowledge and experience. I have worked with NGO's before such as Jagrit8i Mahila Seva Sansthan and Grihasti Foundation. I have a keen interest in researching and web/graphic designing as so I have done different internships in that domain. I like being called a multi- tasker (which I believe Iam) and I always leap for more success and experience. I Am a very helpful and empathetic person and am always ready to help people. I see myself becoming an IAS officer in future and working for the welfare of my society. I purely believe in the concept of 'If you want to change the world, start with yourself'. My aim is to contribute to the objective of the organization and to grow with it. Having experience in the field of competition I can be sure of my commitment which will endeavor far more in achieving goals.

Name - Ritul Aryan (Vice President)

As a child, I'd always been inclined towards stories of social workers, the subject of psychology and literature. The blend of which has had a heavy impact on my personal and intellectual growth. As I grew up, and learned the ways of the world a little bit better, I have tried to incorporate these interests that my environment had planted into my subconscious.

I am a first year Psychology Honours student with content writing as a freelance job. I work with other organizations for the underprivileged for causes such as menstrual hygiene and education for children. I am an avid learner and the world is my teacher, so I understand the plight of women in today's day and age. I look forward to joining hands with this cause and bring my potential to its maximum use.
